About Poznań

Poznań, with over half-a-million residents, is situated in the most economically developed region of Poland, closer to Berlin than to Warsaw. It is best known for its renaissance Old Town and Ostrów Tumski Cathedral, where the history of Poland started. Today, Poznań is an important cultural, business and education (about 140,000 students) centre with many regional customs such as traditional Saint Martin's croissants and a local dialect.
