

The Competition Law Scholars Forum (CLaSF) and the Centre for Antitrust and Regulatory Studies at the University of Warsaw (CARs)

Workshop-"Reform of Regulation 1/2003 –Effectiveness of the NCAs and Beyond"

At the University of Warsaw, Faculty of Management, Szturmowa 1/3 (Warsaw, Poland) on Friday 28th April 2017, room B-205

PROGRAMME

09.30 – 10.00 Registration

10.00 Introduction: Alojzy Z. Nowak (Dean), Barry Rodger (University of Strathclyde, CLaSF)

10.10-11.00 Keynote Speaker, Giorgio Monti (European University Institute),
Regulation 2/2020 amending Regulation 1/2003 with discussion led by Alan Riley (CLaSF)

11.00-11.15 Coffee

11.15-12.15 NCAs: Design and Context- Chair: Angus MacCulloch, Lancaster University

Miguel Sousa Ferro, Institutional Design of National Competition Authorities: EU Requirements, University of Lisbon

Marek Martyniszyn, Maciej Bernatt, Embracing and Nurturing the Free Market: Lessons from Poland through the Lens of Competition Law and Policy, Queen's University, Belfast and University of Warsaw

12.15-13:30 NCAs Institutional Setting and Relation with Courts:- Chair: Barry Rodger (CLaSF)

Annalies Outhuijse, Effective national enforcement of the prohibition of anti-competitive agreements University of Groningen

Maciej Bernatt, Judicial Review of NCAs decisions – a case of Central-Eastern Europe, University of Warsaw

Francisco Marcos, Disagreements in competition: dissenting opinions in competition authorities, IE Business School

13:30-14:30 LUNCH

14:30- 15.45 NCAs toolbox:- Chair: Adam Jasser, President of Polish Competition Authority (2014-2016)

Evi Mattioli, Tim Bruyninckx, Why NCAs do not enforce EU competition law extraterritorially: A view from the perspective of agency theory, University of Liège and European University Institute

Carsten Koenig, The imposition of “follow-on penalties” on managers and employees, University of Goettingen

Eva Lachnit, Individual Guidance: Effective Tool or Enforcer’s Nightmare? Utrecht University

15.45-16:00 Coffee Break

16:00-17:25 Due Process, Proportionality and Independence:- Chair: Aleksander Stawicki, partner at WKB Wierciński, Kwieciński, Baehr

Maciej Bernatt, Marco Botta, Alexandr Svetlicinii, The European Inquisition is not too Bad; The Application of the Right of Defense by the European Commission and the Competition Authorities of the New EU Member States, University of Warsaw, Max Planck Institute for Innovation and Competition, University of Macau

Antonio Robles, Effectiveness, Proportionality And Deterrence under Spanish Competition Law Universidad Carlos III de Madrid

Pieter Van Cleynenbreugel, Streamlining NCA independence in reforming Regulation 1/2003: time to take incongruent accountability realities (more) seriously? University of Liège

17:25 Closing remarks: Stanisław Piątek (CARS), Barry Rodger (CLaSF)

17:40 Taxis to Central Warsaw for dinner for speakers sponsored by WKB Wierciński, Kwieciński, Baehr